¹Your gas meter measures usage in units, but like all suppliers, we have to do a bit of maths to turn it into kWh. Here's how it works: GAS UNITS USED X CALORIFIC VALUE (39.0) X VOLUME CORRECTION (1.02264) ÷ 3.6

Subtotal	£365.99
VAT @ 5% of £365.99	£18.30

What happens about final meter readings and my final bill when I'm leaving EDF Energy?

Direct Debit customers

Please don't cancel your Direct Debit - you'll find everything's a lot simpler if you let us handle this for you. We'll automatically debit any outstanding balance from your account on or around 14 days after sending you your final bill. When the final payment has been made, we'll remove your bank details from our system.

Credit Balances

If your final bill is accurate and in credit when you switch supplier or move home we will refund this within 10 working days. If we don't do what we said we would we'll give you £30 compensation.

Exceptions

- You will not receive any compensation if your switch was as a result of a Supplier of Last Resort direction issued by the regulator
- If you provide us with incomplete or inaccurate information that means we are unable to issue you information by post or electronically
- The amount or method of receiving a refund is subject to an ongoing dispute
- There is otherwise a delay in refunding the credit balance due to events outside of our control
- We are missing information relating to the person living at the premises e.g. Owner/Occupier account
